I am beginning to get interested in you as i type this to you. by the way my name is Greg Senzon . if this is really love, i am sure that distance wouldn't stop it from manifesting. tell me more about you too and ask me what you need to know and i will answer you.

Dear Darling

This feeling of love that I hold within my heart for you runs deeper than any ocean or sea; I just wish you could see how much you mean to me. If only you could hold me, then maybe you would feel my love for you that burns with a flame high enough to last. If only you could hear my heart beat, then maybe you would understand the language of love with which it speaks. If only you could kiss me then maybe you would taste my love for you that's so sweet, and if only you could look into my eyes, the window to my soul, then you would know that this is no lie!

So, if what you feel for me is real and what you say is true, then with all my heart do I trust thee. If you want me as your love as much as I want you as my love then so be it. I give you this heart of mine and ask nothing less or nothing more but just that you don't go breaking my heart. My love and trust is all I have to give to you, sealed with honesty throughout and as time goes by, may it grow stronger to fulfill your heart's desire. If it pleases you, call me your lover from this day forth and you're mine. As our body, mind and soul combine, so do our hearts become one.

Hear this, my declaration of love, from me to you. I love you, my Angel, with all my heart and I will never stop loving you. You are my life, you are my everything. Though distance may keep us apart, you will always be embedded deep within my heart.

One minute without you is like one moment without air, like one day without food and a week without water. One minute without you is like a month without sunshine or shelter. One minute without your chat is like a year absent the sound of music, or of birds, or of rain and thunder.

One minute without your comfort is a week without sleep, for my heart knows no rest, and my nights give no peace. One minute without your love, and my days are empty of beauty; though I see about me everywhere others whom are called beautiful, none of them compare with your visage as I gaze at your photo. One minute without speaking with you is like years alone in the wilderness or a deserted island; though I may talk with people on the streets, my soul has no communion. One minute without you is like a year in a prison; though I may come and go as I please, my soul knows no freedom. One minute without you in my life is like no life at all!

This feeling of love that I have for you, a feeling so strong, so special, so new. You give me the gift of happiness each day, never have I known it could be this way. You have given your love regardless of cost, with my heart in your care, I will never be lost. Or never again wonder what love really means, for now I do know it means so many things. Understanding and caring, through good times and bad, sharing emotions, should they be happy or sad. Being there for each other through laughter or tears, at each others side for the rest of our years. My only wish is to be with you, my love, for each day I pray to the heavens above. That you always remember my feelings for you. A feeling so strong, so special, so new!

Hello Darling,

I have been having thoughts and thoughts about you and never get tired cos you are everywhere within me.. you have made my world so happy and focused with you just to be a good husband in future and you as my wife.

Sweetheart, come to my hands! Please!! I beg with all I have and as I have said, promise you a lifetime of happiness and love. Come dance on the moon with me. You are all there is, I neither need nor want anything else at all. You are my heaven on earth and I need to live there, if you go ... I need to as well, I need to be with one of angel. YOU!

I am empty; fill me with passion for life once again ... please.

I have never in my life met someone more beautiful, enjoyable, loving, and comforting as you. Since the very first day that you sent your email at me I knew there was something very special about you. I had no idea then that I would fall in love even when we have never seen or talked to each other, even till now that I haven't, I am so grateful. I am grateful for us to have wandered into each others world so softly and unexpectedly through a dating site. Nature took its course on our hearts and joined them in a way never imaginable. I know you can call it likeness but i still call it love.

I want you to know, that from the very depths of my heart, I love you. And I love everything that creates you, from your hair - that I wish I could play in more often... to your forehead - that I wish I could kiss while you sleep; from your eyes - that sparkle when you smile (just for me) even when you are not here with me... to your nose - that I wish I could rub my nose against; from your lips - that I just know were made perfectly to fit against mine... to your chin - that I would love to place my finger under to pull you close for a kiss; down your neck and to your heart - that in my own, I claim as mine, and down past every inch of every part of your existence.

I wish more than anything that you and I could grow together, love together, learn together, and laugh together, forever. I sincerely feel that between the two of us, we have the kind of love that some people never get a chance to experience. I promise to love you as much as I can, as best as I can, and for as long as I can. And no matter what, it's very important to me for you to know that you are an irreplaceable spirit that will always be a part of me.

Love always,

I don't know what happened to me whether I was crazy or just lonely, all I know is I was sick of being deceived, mistreated, and unloved. Then you came along.... I don't know why. All I know is that I felt a connection on our first email, something I had never felt before which at first made me feel uneasy, stupid and even a bit childish, which made me go through all kinds of emotions as we emailed and began finding we had a lot in common. I felt like we had known each other from an unknown past.

At first I was scared and a part of me wanted to ignore and just believe that you were just someone who was playing a game being that we were both behind the screen. I was thinking I was crazy to have the feelings I was beginning to have for you. I was really upset with myself and became very angry with the way I was feeling. I didn't want to admit to you or anyone else that I was falling for someone I had never actually met or seen before. I thought I was becoming insane myself - damn it - I tried to fight these feelings off but they were just too powerful for me to ignore! I tried to convince myself that this can't be for real; that you couldn't REALLY be feeling the same as I was... I was going insane!!! No matter how hard I tried - I just could not fight the feelings I was having for you.

Then the night came when i saw the email how you were expressing how you were beginning to feel which I tried not to believe, because I was scared of being disappointed, but the magnetism that I was feeling was so strong that I could no longer fight it. Our emails became an everyday thing and the feelings just would not go away no matter how hard i tried.

I just could not resist the temptation of meeting you while I am here ... all along I could not believe that you were for real, but when we'll finally meet I'll know then there was no way I could stop from loving you. I thought that if we meet, these feelings would just go away, but they don't really know if they will. I tried so hard to convince myself that there is no such thing as true love since i was hurt so much by someone i love so dearly... but you have made me believe differently.

We have been together for some time now and I still love you, even more so now and we haven't really met or seen each other. You have become a part of me that I will always cherish. I love you with all my heart always and forever, You have brought me so much happiness.

Dear Wife,

How can I tell you what I'm feeling when sometimes, I don't even understand myself? I wish things were perfectly wonderful between us, But we're going to have to work at it to make them that way. I do believe we have so much to build on our memories and our love most of all. I may not always understand why we have problems, or exactly how to make our relationship stronger, but I care enough to want us to try to find out. Cos of my last relationship i'll have to put you to test. yes,you heard me well. "TEST" Honey i always love to care about the one i love so much.

When the world closes in and lies so heavily upon you,
remember - I care.

When love seems to only bring you pain,
remember - I care.

What cannot be, cannot be, but always,
remember - I care.

Never be afraid to come to me if you have need of the simplest thing! No matter what it is,
remember - I care.

Hi my love,

Now that I am off work I can write to you. I know how it feel to have someone use you and hurt you. I been down that road before and it hurts like hell. I was in a relationship, with a girl that had sex with my best friend in my home. Yes, your reading right. My friend betrayed that trust we had and now I am looking for someone who's going to love me.. Someone to hold me, love me, kiss me, feel me with every move of his body, cares me. I haven't had that in 5years. I want true love. A woman who appreciate me washing our clothes, keeping them iron and press, laying out her clothes, running her bathe, cooking her meals and making passionate love to her. That's what I want from a woman. I want to walk down the street and hold hands, kiss in public, show my affection to the woman I want to spend my life with. You. I know that the long distance will keep our relationship strong until we can see each other. I'm hoping you get this message and I pray we see each other soon. I love you and I can't wait to be with you.

Love Always

Hey Mrs. Gilbert

Wishing you well on this fine day. I've viewed you in my heart many times and thought to myself wow! she is wonderful. I find myself trying to do something like singing. This one song has been in my head since I started communicating with you and a good song will always come to mind when one feels good about someone. Music that make one feel all types of emotions, you know! awe, something like this.....

Listen people, I aint got time to think about money or whats' it about.

And I ain't got time to sit down and wonder what makes a bird fly.

And I don't have time to think about what makes a flower grow.

And I never give it a sit down thought of where the river flow.

'cause I'm too busy thinking 'bout my baby ,and I ain't got time for nothing else.

Now I ain't got time to discuss the weather or how long it's gonna last.

And I ain't got time to do no studying ,once I get out of class.

Telling ya I'm just a fella and I got a one, one track mind.

And when it comes to thinking 'bout anything but my baby, I just don't have the time.

Too busy thinking 'bout my baby, and I ain't got time for nothing.

Don't you know I'm too busy thinking 'bout my baby, and I ain't got time for nothing else. oh yeah.....

love, no, no, she's somekinda wonderful, people will tell ya I got Heaven right here on earth.

And I'm just a fella, with a one, one track mind.

And when it comes to thinking, 'bout any thing but my baby, I just don't have the time.

'Cause you know I'm too busy thinking 'bout my baby.

And I ain't got time for nothing else.

Dear Angel,

Some of the most superb feelings and tingling emotions come from what love an Angel, such as yourself, and I make. Our world, as we have come to see it, has no bearing and an infinite boundary when we are locked lips to lips. No one person can sever that bond of nothing but pure affection and intimate passion. We are the Angels of Our Heaven and with merely our names to live with. A name, which consists of nothing more than symbols of a language taken for granted. I would soon rather speak nothing. A true test of love of which we have accomplished merely by the elucidation in our eyes.

Earth moves with such apathy that only Our Heaven can keep the pace of our devotion for one another. As slow as the heart beat of a goliath at rest. Why would the world seem so passive? I believe it is a chance for us to make our own time to spend together. It is love. It is what binds the thoughts of all beings trying to understand it. It appears that you and I have fallen into love, without having looked for it. This is Heaven and we are the Angels of Our Name....

Affection Always,
Your Heaven's Angel

Dear Sweetheart

Every night when I close my eyes, you fill my heart with joy, and every morning when I open my eyes, you're the first thing on my mind, more than just a dream of what will probably never be. I'm in love with you - of that I'm sure, but I want to hold you, to kiss you, and adore you. since you' are mine, you've made me the happiest man in this world, if you turn me away, I'll be dying. But either way, you'll always be the greatest love of all that I've ever had.

Love always,

Dear Love,

Here I am, once again, writing a letter that will never be delivered - Baby, life has been very sweet with you and me; destiny has given us our sentence leaving you and me at the mercy of our luck. But, why is it so hard to overcome all the problems when what we feel is beyond love? We're lovers; we're friends; we're two love birds, and we're soul mates. You and I, under the moonlight, together until the stars don't shine any more.

Love Always,

When I said I would marry you, I meant it. I want to live my entire life loving you. I know we'll grow old together. I know you want that too. It will be great. What do you think? What are we waiting for? I think our love is untouchable? Very strong feelings i share with you. I sit and think, and the only thing that best explains it is that we need to be together physically. Having you in one place and me in another is unbearable. Although, I want to be with you so badly, I also issues and my life here. If I could go back, you would probably leave with me when I had the chance. things would be better and i see no regrets loving you forever.. plz dont break my heart cos i can die for you, lay down my life for you. this love is unbreakable.

Take care sweetie.

Roy Gilbert

Honey, there is so much I want to tell you, a lot has been running through my head. I'm having trouble putting my thoughts into words so you'll know how I really feel about you....

I keep thinking about the future, about life, and what I want out of it. I keep thinking about us and what this relationship means to me. I keep thinking about these things and I realize they go hand in hand. This relationship is my future; it's what I want out of life. I want to grow old with you. I want to experience this crazy love forever and ever, and I really think I'm going to get to. I want us to walk through new houses picking the one that would be just right for us. I want to see you walk around our house in a big t-shirt with your hair down and catch me staring at how gorgeous you are. I want you to pull the covers off me at night and then I have to get even closer, if it's possible, to you to keep warm. I want to see you laugh like crazy at me when I do stupid stuff. I want to rub lotion all over your body because you laid out in the sun too long. I want to have a child with you and go through the experiences of parenthood with you. I want to see you and me chasing our little kid around the house, all three of us laughing our heads off and having fun. I want to hold you when you cry and smile with you when you smile. I want to fall asleep every night with you in my arms. I want you to fall asleep on my chest listening to the beat of my heart and know it beats for you I want you to be the first thing I see when I wake up and the last thing I see when I go to sleep. I want to see your bad morning hair; I think it will be so cute. I want to sit on the beach with you and watch the sun set, and I want all the people who pass us to envy the love that we obviously have for each other.

I want to see you walk down that isle and I want to take your hand for the rest of my life. I want to spend all night, and maybe the next day, making love to you with an undying passion (sorry to be so blunt). I want to cook a meal with you and us totally ruin it and end up doing take out. I want to sit there talking to you for hours about nothing at all but in the same time everything or maybe we won't talk at all and just grin at each other realizing how lucky we are.

I want you to get mad at me for doing something stupid, and I want you to bust out laughing when you try to yell at me. I want to lay with you in front of a fireplace and keep the heat going long after the fire goes out. I want to take trips with you to places we've never been and experience them together. I want us to go skinny-dipping in a hotel pool and get caught and streak back to our hotel room waking everyone up because we're laughing so hard. I want us to go and pick out the hot tub we want with the biggest grins on our faces the whole time. I want the sales rep to get embarrassed when we sit in them and make sure we have enough room to do the things we want to do. I want to hold your hand and let you scream at me while you bring our child into this world. I want our friends to come over and get totally jealous because they don't share a love like we do. I want to be walking into a store with you and trip and fall on my face and turn around to see you rolling on the ground laughing at me. I want us to run outside in the rain and act like total kids getting completely soaked, and when we come back in stripping down to nothing as we stumble into the bedroom, or the kitchen counter, or the balcony, or the dining room table, or an office desk, or the shower, which ever one we feel like at the time.

I want it to take your breath away every time I say, "I love you" because you know it's coming from the heart. I want us to be sitting there and watching our child take their first steps from my arms into yours. I want us to sit down with a box of strawberries, a bottle of chocolate syrup, and a thing of mint chocolate ice cream; well, I'll let your imagination finish that one. I want to love you and spend the rest of my time with you. I couldn't really express in words what I'm feeling right now so I decided to share with you SOME of the images and thoughts that have been running through my head.

I love you with every fibre of my cell

Dear ,

Baby, I can never explain the feeling I have had over this last week, it seems months, maybe it is because every moment you arent online has been filled with memories playing over and over in my mind, beautiful memories. The fear that clenches my stomach is beyond comprehension, to live another day with out you would not be living, you are my breath, my pulse, you make me whole anytime i think of you.

At night I am afraid to go to bed, though I am so weary from emotion. When I fall, I wake when it is still dark and try as I might to go back to sleep, I cling to my pillow and know that I must occupy my mind to keep from dying of pain. All the things I have seen, everything I have believed in, my instincts and knowledge guide me. For the first time in my life I felt like a real person even when we havent seen or meet each other before, knew my life was about to change, to become normal with no more pain, and then the worst agony that I could ever imagine replaced that joy that was to be. I fill my days with anything I can possibly do, I don't stop, as though I am running from the thoughts of you trying to bring my tears. The house is immaculate and renovated, my muscles are sore from exercise, I have seen every movie currently in the cinema and been to every shop in town. But no matter what I do, you are right in front of me, everything reminds me. Romantic movies, the things we were going to buy, you are in every corner of my house. The little heart cushion in my shower to the balcony, to the street, to the stars, Baby! I am exhausted and tonight I stopped running and it caught me, the tears won't stop and I am so afraid... where are you, when am I coming home, am I coming home to you? i always ask myself. and i always stop by saying , "Sure, i should be right beside you soon"

Love always,

My wife to be ,

How nice it is to have you in my life, you are my everything, and I mean my everything. I still remember the first time we met online; it felt like a puppy going home for the first time after being in the pound for days! The long waiting was finally over. Although our eyes haven't even seen each other nor we've met too, but it was like I knew from that day on that you were the one I would spend the rest of my life with.

I know we have problems, and everybody does - that means I will not give up on us or you, I love you so damn much! I can't stand being away from you, sleeping without you. Just having you there reassures me that everything will be alright.

You are like God's dove, so beautiful, so pretty, so loving, caring, and that's what I love, the fact that you love me for who I am, not what you want me to become. Thank you, God, for this special woman, you gave me - I can't thank him enough for the love and beauty that I found.

Yes, I fought heart break for so many years cos i was heart broken and won and now I'm going to fight for this love to get stronger than ever, and in time it will. Nothing can keep me from you, not even death, because with death, I bring you with me in my heart and in my soul.

Dear ,

The feeling I have now, my babe, is really indescribable. I was fighting the existence of this great distance between us and yet it came to me striking hard where it hurts the most - being away from you. I want to cry, you know, in fact I did, I need to. It hurts me so much to know your state, the fact that I am not with you. How useless, heartless, worthless am I.

I just want to tell you how sorry I am. Terribly, terribly sorry. I was like a child crying in the shadows, like I want to hit something or shout. I miss you, Babe, I terribly do. Yet that longing cannot equate the love I have for you. And you may be thinking by now that all I tell you are mere words without proof. I will be home soon my love. I will be there.

I love you with all of my heart and soul. All that I am, I owe you. I will be there. "I'll walk in the rain by your side, I'll cling to the warmth of your tiny hand, I'll do anything to keep you satisfied. I love you more than anybody can."

If God forbid, and transfer to me all the pain you are having right now, I would gladly take it, even if it leads me to stop breathing. For that is nothing compared to the joy, satisfaction and completion that the mere mention of your name brings me. For to hold that pain for you shall be my honor and privilege. I have nothing to be proud of but you.

Please do follow your heart. My existence has no purpose but to be with you. I will be home soon my love.

All that I am,

MY PLANS FOR US

I want you to always know that my love is for only you and not someone else... i only sent it to you and nobody else..well, this is a Bible devotion for you to study today...

Daily Light

Thou art my portion, O Lord.

All things are yours ... and ye are Christ`s and Christ is God`s.

Our Saviour Jesus Christ ... gave himself for us. God gave him to be the head over all things to the church. Christ loved the church, and gave himself for it, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

My soul shall make her boast in the Lord. I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness.

Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee. My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord, Thou art my Lord. The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot. The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places yea, I have a goodly heritage.

A Love that is more than I could imagine
Alone after all
Not looking for love again
There was once a time of end
Of void and null
A time of none to spend
A life of conflict and hateful
There a time for death to call
My soul loss the deal
A time to hope I would feel
That should I live after
A white picket fence
I would come home to forever
The 8 to 5 would be so easy
The lonely survivor feel
Would be over
Now I knew that life
Would not come to be ever
I would know love
Not in completeness
My time of learning long, diverse
A life alone but for my kids
A life lived in sets
My own terms no regrets
I had no knowing of you

Meeting you like many others
Seemed so simple fun with you
Hold you at arms length, no pains
Not looking anyways
Having long learned and diverse
To keep my thoughts honest, open
And free to others minds I feel
I needed only to have my butt busted
To see the courage I knew couldn't exist
My eyes blown open
To see you are not like the rest
Now that I have found you
Did I just lose this Lioness
With my thoughts
Racing, she likes you
Or she would not be like this
An end of beginnings
Of new yearnings
To know only more of you
Resistant I knew you would be
You are like me
Common of much trying just for you to see
Life on your own, learning long and diverse
You didn't need me
Certainly not close
You preferred friends for love
Keep them at arms length
A wall to keep them, no pains
A very high wall did I traverse
Little did you know
The love you allowed to grow
Brought a mighty wall down
All of it's own
My wall I kept secret
No more willing to admit
Than you, I've grown
To love more than I could imagine
The little things you've seen
The love in your eyes I've seen
Your love is now the glue that holds
My heart together
Your love is the light that guides
You have given me back my soul
Now we are all of each other
Now I know heaven is Wherever you are
You stand beside me
When life is hard
You don't run away
You amaze me
You are so beautiful
It's not possible to measure my Love
To look for one good woman
To be worth more than all the gold or power
In the universe
And find such greatness
So far beyond that is so much more
Than a love I could imagine

A Thousand Miles Away

I met someone, online you see,
We met months ago.
He's come to mean a lot to me,
I need to tell her so.
We write each other every day,
On that we can depend.
I so look forward to her mail,
She's become my closest friend.
Sometimes we email more than ones 'bout little things;
Sometimes we dig real deep----
Into our present, past and future
Precious secrets we will keep.
She makes me smile, she warms my heart,
She's very nice you see.
She's sweet, she's kind and gentle;
She's this and more to me....
I know we'll never come to know,
To see, to touch, to feel--
We're tied in fact to others,
This fact is very real.
And yet we'll always be together;
Even though we're far apart.
She'll always have a "special place"
Loved her almost from the start..
She is you sweetie..
I love you

Honey you are one true friend, wife and companion. i really need to leave this place cos i`m getting frustrated and stranded each day my dear.. Honey i really need that special assistance from you my dear.. God will reward and bless you.. plz help me stop this nightmare..

Angel of my life,

I know we don't get to talk or see each other face to face. But being apart for now doesn't change the way I feel about you in my heart. Sure I'm lonely, and sometimes I'm overwhelmed with this emptiness in my chest. But, just remember that I love you and everything about you.

That's what gets me through every minute of every day that I'm without you. Sweetheart, you don't know what I would give to kiss your lips, feel your touch, or even just to see you. I long to hold you and feel your sweet caress. I have never loved anyone as much as I love you even without seeing or knowing you before.

You make me feel loved, you make me feel safe, but more importantly, you make me feel wanted. We both knew our friendship would grow right from the very first day we spoke. But, neither one of us could begin to imagine the love we both feel, not exploding or thundering into our hearts, but just slowly growing into a beautiful relationship that only you and I can understand. You are my soul mate, my best friend, my inspiration, and my love.

I care for you and wish for our first kiss, our first date, just as long as you can remember that I love you with every aching bone in my body no matter what. Having your love has been the best thing that has ever happened to me. I don't care what others say about you and me. All I know is that I love you, and that will never change.

Love always,

Dear ,

I can still remember our first time emailing each other, the way you wrote to me, the way you caressed my body with your emails, the way you felt and writing with so much passion and affection. It's truly amazing the way you completely changed my life around.

Just when I thought my life was never going to change, you came along and showed me a whole new world. A world filled with love, a world filled with respect, a world filled trust and remember Love is not a game.

It's true I love you and I do trust you and I'm not sure I ever will find anyone just like you and i know you love me much more in return because my love is so completely true and I really do love you. So please dont try to play on me cos i've totally given my heart to you and i dont want to experience any heart break again cos i can kill myself cos of it. Don't forget I was never untrue to you so don't punish me for crimes that I never committed, 'cause when you do that, it will make me feel really suffocated and it makes me push you away ... Yo siempre te amare con toda mi alma.

Love always,

Dear,

Hey Beautiful, I just wanted to do something simple to say I love you and to put that smile I love so much back on your face. I want everyone to know how much you mean to me. Ever since you have entered my life, I've been flying on Cloud 9 and I have not come down yet.

I tell you this everyday, but you are the most beautiful person I know, inside and out and I see that more clearly with each passing day. I love everything about you, about us. You do something to me that no other has, you have made me so happy, the happiest I've ever been. You give me the most amazing feelings inside, the feeling of being in love with you.

I still don't know what I did to be so lucky to have you in my life, my dream come true... I am so thankful though. In this short time that we've been emailing each other, we have grown so much and I can't wait to see what the future holds for us. I love you, with all my heart and soul, always and forever!

Love always,

Sweet pie,

It's the end of the day and I was thinking about you, as usual. I want you to know how much I sincerely love the times we've spent emailing. It means so much to me. It truly seems like I've known you forever and I honestly can't imagine life without you now. There will be no looking back, no second thoughts and no regrets. I want you and need only you ... and that love will only grow stronger. Do not be scared my love. Sometimes life hits you with unexpected things that take you totally by surprise. All I can say and always say is you're the best surprise life has given me and your capacity for love, caring, and understanding never ceases to amaze me. I've truly been blessed by finding you and I'll never let you go even if I have to bring you back to California myself!

Your darling,

Darling,

You are there and we are together in spirit and soul. We have plans, we have dreams, and we have love. Do you really love me as i do? We have something special, something I have dreamed of, and would never mess up. What we have is special; many wish to have what we have, so why give up on something so real?

Baby, I`m longing to see you everyday, I will never leave you. I may not be around physically, but in my heart is with you there. , and that's why You are not so easy to forget; you are in every song, every movie, and in my every dream.

Immediately i get back to the states, we can finally be together and make our dreams come true. Let's not destroy them before we give them a chance I love you baby, just give us a chance, and you will see the love I have for you.

Love always,

Honey,

I wish I didn't have to miss you. If only you could be with me always. I know I could never be any happier. But then again, I know that the day will come when I will be able to spend my every waking moment with you. I even miss you when I am sleeping!

I love you, babe. You are my true and my only love, and I thank you for be so kind with my heart. Hopefully, soon I won't have to hate missing you.

Love Always,

Dear ,

I miss you, my darling, as I always do. I can almost feel you beside me as I write this letter, and I can smell the scent of wildflowers that always reminds me of you. But at this moment, these things no longer give me pleasure. Your emails have been less and less frequent as i want it to be, and I feel sometimes as if the greatest part of who I am is slowly slipping away. I am trying to hold on, though. At night when I am alone, I call for you, and whenever my ache seems to be the greatest, you still seem to find a way to make it go away emotionally.

Last night, in my dreams, I saw you on the pier. The wind was blowing through your hair, and your eyes held the fading sunlight. I was speechless as I watched you leaning against the rail. You are beautiful, I thought as I saw you, a vision that I could never find in anyone else. I slowly began to walk toward you, and when you finally turned to me, I noticed that others had been watching you as well. "Do you know her?" they asked me in jealous whispers, and as you smiled at me I simply answered with the truth, "Better than I know myself."

I stop when I reach you and I take you in my arms. I long for this moment more than any other. It is what I live for, and when you return my embrace, I give myself over to this moment, at peace once again. I raise my hand and gently touch your cheek and you tilt your head and close your eyes. My hands are hard and your skin is soft, and I wonder for a moment if you'll pull back, but of course, you don't. I know that this is the moment I have been waiting for, and I pray that the moment never ends.

Love always,

Hey Princess hope u had a great day as usual beautiful email and such beautiful pictures I was just reading what u wrote and yea i know all about being hurt in the past but I thank God for the hurt sometimes u have to just go to that person that hurt u and say thank u because if u didn't hurt me I wouldn't have ran into my blessing sometimes we want to build up what God wants to tear down, let me explain something to u so u want think im confusing you or moving fast because alot of people don't understand me i may not even be what u want im very different from the average man I am always on the go with this music and church and people i dated in the past can't deal with it im hardly ever at home because i work for myself and sitting at home dosen't pay my bills u know what I mean so there are alot of times im on call with wha i do and its hard to gain understanding from someone u might just think u want me but can't handle what I do and im not doing nothing but God's work and my music and it requires alot of my time so when u say u can't wait to see me or be with me I really don't undrstand that because I can't say the same when i say i move slowly and carefully that's what I really mean, I believe in my heart u are a beautiful woman but im here and u are there and its hard to do long distance things I have tried it 3 times in the past and it just dosen't work for me and I don't want u to think im leading u on I just have to keep it real with u please understand me, i would never want to hurt u, its hard to believe but i've never cheated on nobody I wasn't raised that way my mom taught me to respect women just as if they were here I love my black sisters they are our queens I love everybody because the love I have for God keeps me loving that way, that's why I quit going out, I don't go to clubs I don't care about smoking and riding on rims im very different I just love life because where I came from I should have been dead along time ago I can tell u some stories that will have u crying about me and I was never bad growing up just poor and couldn't get away being young but now im grown in life i left home at 18 and never went back because i was taught not to be lazy and disrespect women so i just want u to really know how I am but the more i chat with u the more I will understand u because nothing happens overnight I pray God gives u everything u need u are a solider and Im proud of u, u are a beautiful woman who will be a great wife but u have to let God do it and not u trust me I know, if he cheated on u and didn't care he wasn't for you because God makes no mistakes in life we do all the time, I care about u and love u in a friendly way and don't want to see u hurting but u have to hurt in order to heal so look at it as a good thing, His lost someone else gain. Because when we let God down that's the dissapointment its not about people and what they say or do to us just forgive and move forward don't let your past mess up your future ok u take care, Roy
