My Introduction

I am Chalena Robert by my name, 31 years old by my age and i am an Economist by profession.

I am a competent economist by my profession and i have once worked in textile store, a collection of textiles design and sewing materials and i was lay off job in last year December 17th and hunt for job .

What's your name, how old are you, what do you do for a living and where are you originated from?

I was born and raised up in USA OR but presently In nigeria But am planing to move back to state or relocate to any where as soon as i have meet my dream man or responsible honest, loyal caring man that i can spend all the rest of my life with and commit and dedicate all my life unto him,i came here to take Good care of my old aged mother since the death fo my late and husband

I am lonely single female i dont have any kid and i have never been to any relationship in my life

Are you a single male, do you have any kid, have you ever beento any relationship before?

Why i have been in Nigeria

I lost my father in 1999 while my mom passed away in 2008 and suffered from the cancer of the lungs.

I don't have any joy nor happiness since the day that i had became a single and lonely woman because my late parent always stand by me and give me full support all the time.

My life turned to sore when there is no body that i can lean on or share my feelings with and i don't have any man in my life because of my early life christianity life that i spent.

I had been staying and living with my late dad family In NY after the demising of my parent, but all my late dad families were seems so bad and evil doer that was planing to hurt my life and giving me a threat all the time.

my late dad family doesn't like me and they are wishing me dying just because we are a real christian and they aren't.

They always behaved like a devil incanante and been doing all the bad and worst things in life and all their attitude is very worst and against my christianity faith and believe because my both late parent were a pastor while they were alive.

I am the only surviving daughter of my parent. While i don't have any sister nor brothers.

I just came down to west part of african in nigeria in last year december 27th after the xmass and annual auditorium convention in my church in Schenectady.

I left the state because i want to free and i don't want to associate my self with my late dad family with thier evil deed and bad with rough life which they are living.

I came down to Nigeria with the help of superior mother of my church in schenectady Deaconess Analiza walter who came from west africa Nigeria to my church in Ny for anual auditorium convention.

And i explained every thing to her about my life and how i have been suffering with my christianity faith in Christ. That is the reason why i came down to Nigeria with this woman to support the work of God .

This woman really like me because i am a singer, i love to sing a lots and i always lead Soprano for my church and i had been working for the Gospel ministry since my 10 years old after my baptistism.

I have not heard any more from Deaconess Analiza walter since April of this year when she left Nigeria for New Zealand for World Gospel Crusade before i heard that Deaconess Analiza walter has dead.

Although she is older enough because she is about 75 years old Godly woman, May her soul rest in great perfect peace and sleep at the right hand of our creator Amen. That is the reason why i left usa for nigeria because i don't want to die. More so i am woman of hope and independent woman, i dont really care about properties or wealth or men's wealth, i beleive in my self and in what God have in plans for me. I dont have any joy nor happiness since the day that i had became an orphan and been in nigeria, all my day has been bad and so boring and lonely because there is no one that i can lean on or spend my days with.

I am living and staying at one catholic mission house here in Abuja Nigeria , and am using the church mission house computer to chat with you.

About the Age difference

I hope you dont mind about our age difference and my current location where i am for now which is west africa Nigeria, because i think to commit a longterm relationship, age difference or age sector does not matter and distance doesnt matter at all because it does not affect the true love and real love that both are seeeking for.

And i think age is ordinary number and its just for counting and i dont believe in it. All what really matter most to me is loyalty, honesty, sincerity and respect. I will really get to know your motives and intensions towards me because i really would want to work towards getting to meet you in person and hopefully see wat happens next. I am woman of hope, independent and am not into head games or dissapointment or trying to hurt some one's life to make life easier to live for me.

Never i am not here to hurt any living soul like me and i will never allow any man to hurt my life or play games with my heart, thats why i have been living with honest and use honest and sincerity as my watchword. And am not going into divorce, never i will not do that because i dont have believe in such thing.

About my ex Boy friend and my past Relationship

You are the first man in my life, i have never meet or chat with any man in my life and i have never beent to any relationship despite of sleeping with a man or having any sexual intercourse.

I am new on here and you are the first man that i would ever share my feeling with or contact on here and its just because of your christianity believes and we really have lots in common if we are a couple.

This are the reason why i have not go into any relationship since all this day and the reason why i have been keeping my virginity for my dream man to be my husband. Honey, its not easy to just jump into a relationship or quickly fall in love with some one that we just met each other and to find or meet good soul heart it will be so long and some mens of now are dayd are very wicked with retch heart, some men were not ready to commit a long term relationship and they are not ready to settle down or live with woman and have someone living with them under the same roof.

And some men does believe in using woman as thier sex slave and sex toy which has means i can't never afford to do or subscribe my heart into such a thing, because i am just seeking for something real, strong, pure, unique and genuine.

And i dont want to useless my body and lose my virginity with uncare man, or some one that doesn't ready to get marry. But am ready to give all my body to my dream man to be my husband at any time that he want me on bed, and make sweet passionate love together.

More so i have promised my late mom that i wont lose my virginity and i will not fall in love or sleep with any man just any how until i meet the man of my life which has means my dream man to be my husband.

I love to fulfill promise, and i dont want to betray or dissapoint my late mom trust and her believes in me. And that's why i am still a single and remain virgin till today that i met you. And i am ready submissive all my body, my life, my heart, my body and my soul to my dream man.

About My Christianity Faith in Christ

I am devoted catholic christian woman, and i beleive in honesty and loyalty, i have been working for the gospel ministry since my 10 years old after my baptist in my church in schenectady, i do sing tennor for my church in Ny. And i have been choosing honest as my watchword, i really hate to been dishonest to some one or cheat some one or lie to human being like me, That's why i love to be open minded and loyal at all time, because i dont have a stone heart. What about you sweetie, and what are you really seeking for in a relationship, is it a longterm relationship or friendship, or short time? Because am not here for Frienship at all, Friendship doesn't last at all, and it always end up to braking down of one heart, Because only longterm relationship can last and strong acording to my christianity believes.

About my Coming back to States

I have bee planning to get back to state, but i dont want to go back to Allen texas, any more, because there is no one left for me at home anymore, and i am really helpless, I have paid for the deposit of my plane ticket, but all what is holding me down here in nigeria is the balance fee of my plane ticket which i wasn't be able to come up with, and there is no one that i can contact for help anymore.

But am ready to relocate to some one that ready to have me as his wife for eternally and not to divorce me

And as soon as i get help with the balance fee of my plane ticket, i will be able to change my destination landing airport to the nearest airport to your city, and my flight details with my flight schedule including my departure and arrival time of my flight shall be send to your e-mail so that you will be able to know my arrival and departure time that you will come and pick me up at the airport. All what is holding me down here in Nigeria is just $800, but i will use $30 to change my destination landing airport to the nearest airport to your city.

I assure u that as soon as i can be able to get help with the balance fee of my plane ticket,i will do anything to be with you and i will surely come into your life and stay there forever.

I dont want to ask you for this to help me with the renewal fees, But there is no one left for me in my home in NYC and there is no one that i could contacted for help any lonegr in Usa then there is no one to run to for help i just have to hold on to my faith and see wat God has in gift for me..well i really want to be with you at all cost,cause right now my heart is yours and no one will take it from you and no one will change my mind.,i stand on the oath of love that no matter wat i will love you for life and i will cherish every moment we spend together has husband and wife.

I just dont Care for your money

i want you to know that i am not trying to fall in love with you just because you are wealthy or you have money or you have good properties, not at all. I just falled in love with you and ready to be with you and start a new life with you because of your sincerity and your loyalty to me and we really have lots in comon and i know that when we are together i will not have any problem of living and you will give me happiness and joy More so i just want you because of all your persionalities and my life doesn't depends on money and i am not a money lover at all and i will never depends on men's wealth.

Although some women does, they do use man as step up and use advantage of honest and loyalty of man to snatch all their proeprties and their wealth by giving or sharing a fake love with them. And some people will pretend to share fake love with men to show him that they love him and when they start living together and after some years, the woman will just go through divorce and leave the man so that she can get all his properties and share all mens wealth equally. Can you see that some women are bads and evil doer. I am just the woman of mission and passion and i am whom i said i am to you and i will never hurt your life or leave your home or hurt your feelings, and i am ready to be with you for real till eternity till i die and live old with you if destiny permits us

More about me

I want you to realize one fact that in no occasion will I lie to you or been dishonest to you. What would I gain in such? I wish I could open my heart for you to see so that you can be sure i am yours alone and i am ready to be your every thing in nature. I don't know what else to say than to tell you that I will always be myself, honest, faithful, caring, loving and affectionate, I do hope you would believe me, lets give love a chance to win and I pray that we will never regret we do so I just want to tell that i am very simple, i like to be open minded without tell lies or hurt your life or hiding any of my feelings to you and I'm an outgoing romantic, easy going. loyal, Godly, marriage minded caring person that want to commit a long term relationship.

My glass is always half full, being an optimist, life is an adventure. I'm willing to try new things, you never know until you try, (i.e). i am honest and appreciate honesty from others. I don't have time for mind games. Whoever you are and whatever you are is the way it should be No sense in making ourself into someone we are not or pretending to act like some one that we are to or call our self as whom we are not, too much drama. It's better to be straight up at the beginning and allow the other person to choose if we are really fit into their world.

The element in those who lied, cheat, play games to hurt humans life and got some one into disapointment and play a tricks and for those who use some one advantage to make life easier to live for them never impressed me at all and its just because of my christianity believes and good up bringing.

I strive every day to be a better person than i was yesterday, never know how a smile or kind word will impact the life of another. It's always better to be a blessing than been a misery into someone else.

I treat people with respect and expect the same in return because if someone has no clue how to act, then they have shown me that they are unworthy of my time and i am not the kinda type of woman that fit into thier life to commit a relationship with instead of been forcing himself to be who is not. In fact, they have done me a favor by revealing who they really are to me.

Laughter is the best ever, at least we must be able to laugh at each other and share our minds together because two good heads are better than one, because this world is too full of miserable people.

Honey i am looking for the missing piece to my puzzle, the one that completes me, he will be intelligent, funny, caring, with a good heart and a very good sense of humor. I have a lot to offer the right person, however no time for all the wrong ones.

I do not like liars, never understood why they waste peoples time, and not to mention their own. I am looking for someone who is passionate/compassionate.

Someone who knows that life is short, and it's also what you make it.

Honey, i live and spend my each day as if it were my last theory on earth and i think one of the sexiest things a woman can possess is a good alttitude. And i am looking for positive people, negative ones bore me, because negative people spend too much time dwelling on things they can't probably change, caught in suspense, never reaching goals or striving to be any better.

If this were a perfect world, then all of us would be perfect. There is no perfect human being, there are only those who strive towards perfection. I am looking for an equal, someone to go through life's hills and valleys with.

I am looking for a long-term relationship, I'd just like to add and build a fence around your heart, not a wall. Allow others to see but not readily touch. Let them approach and behold, to consider its beauty.

I enjoy the outdoors, especially the beach. Walking on the beach at night, waves crashing restlessly, a million stars in the sky, ahhh perfect for me. I also like dining out, plays, movies, art (another of my passions). I'm pretty flexible as far as activities goes.

If it is meant to be, then every word and every touch will fuel our passion like flames. and we may be one. Love is not about finding the right person, but creating a right relationship as the days pass by to months and years if we connect positively. It's not about how much love you have in the beginning or the fear to fall in love again, but how much love you build till the you touch yourselves and make it real.

The greatest thing you'll ever learn, is just to love and be loved in return, You will never know love unless you surrender to it, Someday, when I'm awfully low, I will feel a glow just thinking of you...i will like to get to meet you in person and hopefully make things real.

I Will also like to get to know more about you and see if we can make things real.

About the Relationship

I am Looking for an honest trusted, loving caring and trust worthy down to earth to every one in life and generous laugh with any one to make people happy and lively that will not be having a double date that will not cheat on me.

I prefer healthy board to have a good form and i like free air of the cleanness at home, like to prepare tasty & experiment in the kitchen and my perception of an ideal relationship.

So, i like cheerful, kind, overt, honest, many-sided people. I prefer well-bred, well-educated, strong, courageous, purposeful, independent mens, who is fit with sense of gladness every day. Who think, that family, children and mutual understanding between close people - is one of the significant part of hapiness in the life.

I am from a good background, I am a very good Christian and I am born into a Christian family, I am very faithful and honest and under no circumstance will i be unfaithful to my partner or anyone to add to this i am a choir at the church and I sing very well.

I am well brought up and I know what I am required of as a wife.

And someone that will appreciate living a simple life, i am passionate, sensitive, giving, person who finds a great sense of humor attractive. Honesty and integrity are important to me, and i find communication is the backbone of any relationship. I'm considerate and affectionate, a good listener.

I am a woman of high, moral, integrity, kind and very supportive, smart, funny, inscrutable, loving, easy to talk to, dependable, kind, honest, loyal. And i am God fearing woman and in everything i do put honesty as first because honesty and loyalty leads me through the part i take in my life without been hurting.

I believe in Christian values as this is what guides my life. I work hard to make things happy for myself always and that is the reason why i fall in love with you.

And i have accepted your proposal because you are a man with hardworking energy, not a couch potato. you are a well groomed, thoughtful, caring, lovely, obidience, responsible, faithful and a God fearing man.

Sweetie, i want this relationship to work out for real and leads to marriage if that is what you wants and planning for, that accepts as well as gives.

Because i am one man woman and i want to be alone in your beautiful arms where i do belongs and where i'm gonna spend all my eternal life.

I'll be faithfull to you in respond my precious king, and i will do all my possible best to just treat a man as a man should be treated, and to give you a lots of respect with unlimited carrying that you deserve as my husband.

And i will never think of divorce or leave you or run away for you when i get to your home, All i want is stable with long term relationship without been divorce and i dont have that in my mind and i dont ever pray for that in my life. That is the reason why i have been so patient to search and seek for my soulmate before God really sent you to me from heaven.

My king, i fall in love with you and gave you all my life not because you are wealthy or you are rich or you have good profession or you are earning good money. Please i want you to know that i do not fall in love with you just because i want your money or your wealth or your house,

I am not a money lover and i'm not a money dependants at all and my life is not upto money and i will never trade out my love to any man because of wealth because this world is full of vanity.

But i do appreciate true and real love and that is all about me. I fall in love with you just because i ave been so lonely and living a loneliness life and i am looking for a long lasting relationship with a decent man.

Someone honest, caring, romantic, loyal, intelligent, passionate ,loving and confident,who has focus and knows what he wants in life. That is the reason why i fall in love with you because we have lots in common and we are really compatible in nature.

Most of all i care for happiness and a bit of adventure in my life.If it is meant to be, our hearts will find each other when we meet. And if our hearts melt together so will our bodies and souls.

Then every word and every touch will fuel our passion like flames. I will turn to be yours, you will become mine, and we may be one.Love is not about finding the right person, but creating a right relationship as the days pass by to months and years if we connect positively.

To find a real true love with a stable long lasting relationship is not about how much love you have in the beginning or the fear to fall in love again, but how much love you build till the you touch yourselves and make it real.

The greatest thing you'll ever learn, is just to love and be loved in return,You will never know love unless you surrender to it,someday, when I'm awfully low, I will feel a glow just thinking of you.

i think someone older in age knows how to do and take care and treat a lady perfectly, I don't really know how to say this but its like there is something special about you right from when I met you.

One thing I understand about love is that, love is not judged to be right by how far or how long but how well and also how truly serious are the two people feeling for each other.

I believe that the solid foundation to a long lasting relationship should be built on trust, truth, honesty and loyalty and i am very happy that we both have it all and the interest of mutual feelings in both partners will bring about understanding.

My king you really deserve and worth of dieing for, i am ready to be yours till heaven call and till eternity.

One thing i understand about something good is this, no good thing will come easy, if we are really and truly meant for each other, there must be challenges we have to face on our way to achieving our aim and we will surely overcome those challenges.

Actually I know that Almighty lord has answered my prayer and hear my crying and my woe by sending and bless me with a good, caring, loving and romantic man like you to be my eternity partner,but i never knew it could be this real. I thank the good lord for bringing you unto my way.

There are two important things to make one's life worth living. One is to have a true friend who will be there for him or her always to share your friendly advice and the second is to have a lover to share your love and affection with you and make you feel loved.

Anyone of these is good as many people in the world today may have one of it and will remain happy, but I am happy I have both and that's you

I can't imagine any better thing than being with you at the moment and look into your eyes and watch the sun start to rise from there. I wish you could hold me and cuddle me in your arms right now.

One thing about you men is, many of you pretend to be who you are not, just to get a lady up to you wherever you are and use her up to satisfy your sexual needs and later drop her.

I hope you are different but how can I be sure that I will be safe while with you and will not be maltreated as just a sex slave. How can I trust you on this? But I believe and I do trust you and I have 100% guaranty assurance on you that you will not do that to me when I get to your home.

I know you are for real and that this is not all about internet fantasy just to waste your time or to satisfy a horny mood because I am for real and seriously looking for a lifetime soulmate. And as I am new to this internet relationship, I would not like to fall a victim.

As future husband and wife, I believe there should be a kind of physical intimacy between us cos I don't really believe much in this online thing as I am new to it unlike being together and really see how we feel about each other.

My king, I am very happy as we have been trying to make an arrangement to meet physically so as to make this relationship real and everlasting.

One thing I understand about nature is that life itself is a risk, we don't have power over tomorrow, we can only try to make tomorrow a better day by trying our best and leave the rest.

I am ready to risk anything, even my very self, to secure your happiness and bring lots of joy into your life because my heart belongs to you and I'm ready to give it all to you.

There are stages in one's life when one needs to take chances to make sure things are right. I believe a try will convince you.

Please don't leave me all to myself because around you I have built my world to you and I am ready to dance on the moon with you and walk hand in hand at the beach on our honeymoon day, it will definitely drive me crazy, please give me one chance to love you more and dedicate all my life to you and you will never regret you did.

I am so excited about the day a celebration will come when we are going to walk hand in hand at the beach for our honeymoon. We are like the earth and sky, one family under the sun tears of pain, tears of joy, one thing nothing can destroy is our pride and love. Deeply inside me, we are one.

All the wisdom to lead, all the courage that you need, you'll find when you see we are one. Don't hang around with people who will feed your doubts but rather hang around with people who will feed your Faith.

Feed your faith and starve away your doubts about me because I am for real and I really love you and want to spend all the rest of my life with you over there. I am not happy as I am here feeling a lonely life all the time.

All relationships have some adjustment periods, but being hurt shouldn't be part of being in love. Loving relationships have good qualities, such as support from your partner, a willingness to communicate, a desire to compromise, and open an honest communication and be faithful to each other.

When we do not have all these fundamental qualities in a relationship, that relationship isn't likely to grow, and become something that we desire but I am very happy that we have all the qualities that stand behind the true and real love in a relationship and our relationship will work out for real. I am so happy. In a relationship, I want you to know that we must be able to care for each other and stand beside and support from time to time. When your loved one does not offer you their support it may be time to look at your relationship.

As we all want to nurture those that we love. We want the best in life for those that we care about. If your partner is unwilling to listen to you, and to your problems, they are not meeting your needs when you need support.

Support can come in many forms, someone lending an ear, someone going out of their way to help you, or something as simple as a phone call to cheer you up. Make sure your partner gives you support when you need it.

I want you to know that when engaging in a relationship with another person there is always going to be things that you do not agree upon. You want to have the ability to compromise so both partners are getting their wishes met.

This may mean one night you watch football, and one night your partner watches a movie you enjoy. It might mean that your partner can agree to try a dish that you enjoy cooking.

In any organization with more than one person in it, there will be more than one opinion, work with your partner to see that both of you can compromise on different subjects. If someone isn't willing to compromise, they are not willing to acknowledge your wants and desires.

If they can not acknowledge your wants they are likely not emotionally developed enough for you to have your needs met.

Open and honest communication is one of the more desirable qualities you want to have in a relationship. Watch to see that your partner is not secretive, nor are they willing to tell lies to avoid certain subjects.

For an instance, if a partner is married, and fails to tell you that, you can rightfully assume if they can lie about big things, they can lie about small things.

While you may not like everything your partner may say, freedom to be honest should be there in your relationship.

Likewise, you need to be open and honest with your partner; a relationship based upon false truths is not likely to be successful, because both partners do not have the correct frame of reference in the relationship.

There are many qualities that make relationships good support, compromise, and open and honest communication is just a few of these qualities that you may desire in a relationship.

Engage only in relationships where both partners can openly discuss their wants and needs, this can take practice.

Remember loving relationships grow and only become better, eliminate those who do not meet your needs when they continually fail to support you, will not compromise, and will not be honest.

These three qualities alone will help you nurture and develop a deeper relationship with your partner and i hope i do really fit to be part of your life?

TRUST....

Darling, i am very happy that i do trust you completely from the dwell of my heart, but first you need to love in order to trust.

To love someone is to understand each other, to laugh together, to smile with your heart and to trust one another.

One important thing is to let each other go if you can't do this. Love is like a wonderful feeling of compassion and satisfaction.

Sweetie, i give you respect and trust; and it should receive that love back. The best proof of love is trust, but finding love and finding trust was a gift from you to me.

Relationships should never be taken for granted that is why i opened all my heart to you.

The choice of being with another life is an amazing thing. Trust, loyalty and respect are a must for eternal happiness.

No matter how much we love someone if we don't have these ingredients we will never succeed but i am very happy that we both understand each other and shared true and real love together.

Honey to be in love means being patient but to be patient you must trust him/her first, that is the reason why i do love you so much.
Sweetie, there is no way we can find love through the eye or ear, so we must trust the only thing that will never fade until we die.
Love is like trust, when you find your special someone it is as if you're trusting them with your heart. Trust is what you put in someone's hands. Faith is what you hold on to.
Trust is what makes everyone realize that you are always there for them. Faith is what makes everyone realize that you are always there to help them in case they need some help.
Distance doesn't matter if you really love the person, what matters most is your honesty and trust for that relationship to work out.
Without romance, love gets dry. Without respect, love gets lost. Without caring, love gets boring. Without honesty, love gets unhappy, and without trust, love gets unstable that is the reason why i shared ever thingwith you.
Love is a wonderful gift; trust in it, believe in it, give it, and it will be returned to you to give again and again.
You can get advice from family, friends and strangers, but the best advice comes from your heart; it never lies - trust it.
There are so many people that are trustworthy, but only a few are worth trusting with your heart; choose wisely.
To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved. For you can love many, but without trust you have nothing. The heart already knows what the mind can only dream of. Trust your heart.
Distance cannot, and will not hurt a bond between two people that is based on mutual respect, trust, commitment, and love.
Jealousy is not a sign of true love; it's insecurities that comes in the way, 'cause love has just one important ingredient:
My Gem do you really love and trust me for real ? because true and real love that normally leads to a long term devoted relationship means never doubting anything. It means trusting and being honest with each other Someone can be as beautiful on the outside as they are on the inside, but when he or she betrays my trust, they become the ugliest person in the world to me and that is the reason why i have choose honesty and sincerity as my watchword.
Love is patient, love is kind, it does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud, it mustn't be rude, and it must not be self-seeking.
It is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrong doing. It does not delight in evil, but rejoices in the truth and its always protect, trusts, hopes and perseveres.
Love takes many things such as trust, hope, wishes, dreams, and everything you've got, even when you know it's not going be enough, love is not always fireworks and shooting stars because sometimes it's a simple understanding and trust between two people..

When i Get to your home

My dear Husband, i want you to know that everything you do for me reassures me that I am appreciated. I want you to know that you mean so much to me. You make me really happy and even though we are apart so much of the time, it's made up each time i see you again.

The feeling that i get is overwhelming every day as time goes by, my feelings for you grow dramatically.

I am thinking so much about next week friday when i am going to meet you at the airport. I think i am getting butterflies in my stomach just at the thought of seeing you in my life.

You make everything complete and I can't imagine spending time with someone else and having these feelings for anyone else. I'm anxious to set my eye on you and meet you in person at the airport. Time is ticking, and it's going by really slow. It takes a strong man to accomplish everything that you have in your life, I am proud of you that you stick to your goals, and we have improved our life so much from what it was before which was so lonely and I am so happy that you respect my beliefs as I respect yours.

You say that you are going to make me a happy woman, well you have already done that just by being you and showing me love and being so open with your feelings.

You are what i dreamed of when i was a little girl, someone with integrity, honesty, love, affection, handsome, and with such a charming personality.

Love is like a river, never ending as it flows, but gets greater with time its like swallowing hot chocolate before it has cooled off. It takes you by surprise at first, but keeps you warm for a long time.

Love is not about finding the right person, but creating a right relationship. It's not about how much love you have in the beginning but how much love you build till the end.

Love is a journey not a destination, love is a precious gift that you receive, and you need to give it with caution. Love is happiness given back and forth, love is the only game never postponed due to darkness

Love is too strong a word to say it too early, but it has too beautiful a meaning to say it too late.

Love is a noble act of self-giving, offering trust, faith, and loyalty. The more you love, the more you lose a part of yourself, yet you don't become less of who you are; you end up being complete with your loved ones.

Love is in your heart not to stay, but to be shared.

Love is like salted water; the more you drink the more your thirst increases

Love is when there are a million things you want to say to someone, but when they look you in the eyes and hold you in their arms nothing in life matters other than being with that person at that moment.

Love is like the air we breathe. It may not always be seen, but it is always felt, used and needed. Love is not a feeling it's a sensation. Love is a box waiting to be opened by the right recipient.

Love is when you find yourself spending every wish on her, love is not to be purchased and affection has no price, love is like a flower, give it some time, patience and lots of tender loving care; and watch it bloom into something wonderful before your eyes.

Love is like the weather, sometimes it forces you to withdraw even when you don't want to stay inside. While other times it is the best of times and you keep yourself inside.

Love is like a rose, the special one grows in the winter, love is what you make it and with whom you make it; it is what it is

Love is the passion that we feel inside of our hearts that we can't hide. We pretend to hide it, but it burns us more and more until the pain grows and grows and it never ends

If love is music in its purest form, then you are the notes on the page and the melody in my heart

When he's totally in love

For each day and night i look to the sky i see that our love has no limit,my love for you will never fade away and i will grow in happiness in love with you and my life will be filled with so much love and joy.

About commiting into marriage

Marriage is all i have waited for and now i have found it and i wont loose it because marraige is all about the truth of love and the joining of 2 heart to become one and our heart has become one and nothing on earth can seperate both of us from each other not even human.

Our words are not enough for us to show the feelings of love inside of us, i cant just wait anymore for that day that we are gonna join our life together.

To meet you in person and show you how loving i am towards you because your love for me has brought great happiness in my heart and my love for you has made you so happy that each day i get to imagine you, my heart gets closer to yours.

You have brought my heart closer to yours to a level that i will never think of turning back, no matter what happens we will both face the rythm of life and love together.

My feelings are been created through the truth of your heart and it made me open up the true feelings and the truth of my love to you because not every human has the truth of love in them but we are both sincere and honest about our feelings it has made us know how lovely we are to each other.

May our last kisses be many years from now and taste of one another's lips and may out love merge together to become one.

Our love, our heart and our feelings are now one. No one will take me away from you not even nature of life will take me away from you.

I am so addicted to your love and i am so attracted to your heart and i will never stop loving you and making you happy beause you have completed my humanity and i have made you realise the truth of your real personality and i think you are so happy about it.

If my words ain't truth you wouldn't have been able to show me the truth of love, but because my feelings and motives towards you are so true and real it has really given you the perfect courage to show all your true feelings to me and i am so happy that you took a great chance to love me.

I know the world will be so happy to see us together.

Marriage may be made in heaven, but the maintenance must be done on earth and two hearts that have been merged is marriage; two souls that have been merged is fate

Principles of Marriage

What is Marriage?

Marriage is the mixture of communication, patience, love, sharing, praying and smiles to create happiness and prosperity. Marriage is a fragile thread that binds us together, so handle it with care. Marriage is like a fine wine, as it ages it just gets better. Look at all the good times and leave behind the bad, for there are more wonders you will find in each, as time passes by.....For hearing my thoughts, understanding my dreams and being my best friend, for filling my life with joy and loving me without end, I do love u so much.....Love is not perfect. Rather, a feeling full of problems and hardships. But it is through these problems and hardships that we know that love can survive and endure anything, and shall endure forever.....Love is when two people join together and make each other better people for having the other in their life. The grass is not greener on the other side, you just have to water your own.....sincerely believe in you and your love for me will never end till death do us part because i will continue to love you and care for you and make you happy.....I do love you so so much and i will make it up to you meeting you in person but i dont know how sooner you want me to get on plane.....I am just imagine how its going to be but i dont know when..i am so desperate to meet you in person and i know i will surely make it back to your home loving you with all my heart.
