Hi ,How are you doing? Its such a great pleasure reading from you, well here is a little about me and what I have been told about myself...I love restaurant,camping,snuggling by a campfire & making love under the stars,or in the confines of a cosy tent setting. Either way its a very sensual way to spend a great weekend.My other interest include swimming, reading novels,writting poems, cooking, movies, riding, boating & fishing in the Gulf. I like the simple things in life.What's important is being true to who you are & not being afraid to show it. I value Humanitarian works and charity and this is the reason why I have dedicated myself into it.I have a strong faith in God and would want someone with the same belief.Someone that can be a comfort to me & wouldn't be afraid to learn on me for the same. Honesty is very important.I'm looking for someone that is not afraid to show open affection. I'm a little bit shy and I need someone that is easy to talk to until we get better acquainted. I want someone that is positive and loves life, looks on the bright side. I'm loyal and honest. Most of all I want to have a partner that's just that, a partner. I'm looking for a man that's as good a friend as they are a lover. That combination along with honesty & a strong faith in God go along way in a successful relationship. I'm not a woman of unlimited worldly means, but I am true to the core. A true friend & faithful to the man that shares my values. Family, friends, faith & a strong desire to satisfy my man both physically & emotionally. I was born in GA, but was raised in Paris because I lost my mom since my child birth and I was handed over to my grandma when my grandma remarried to a French man she relocated to Paris, I work with my dad as his personal assistant before he met his death on 9/11, present am out of GA am in West Africa because I was invited here with some group of people, I learnt Art and Crafts and Fashion designing and also run a charity organisation too, I have a strong belief in The God that I serve and this why I always have it at the back of my mind that He is always there for me.. Tell me more about yourself, I'm looking forward to reading from you.. and also would love to have a chat with you... Take good care of yourself and have a lovely day Jenny.

After All about myself and getting to know more of you, think we should get to know some other thing about each other. I will want to know your main motive on here and I will also want to know if you are looking for just a friend or someone more than a friend to you, I will want to know if you need a serious lady in your life. I still have a lot of questions to ask you as time goes on because I will not like to waste my time with anybody online because I don't want to get hurt anymore. So get back to me as soon as possible with all honesty of heart. Just give a piece of your mind on your reply.

I will be waiting for your mail

Thanks

Jenny Care[/quote

Thanks so much for your mail, I want to ask you these questions and I want you to keep up the honesty you have been showing to your mail and what you tell me about yourself. These are very important questions to me and to any relationship before going into it. I want you to know if you do believe in LOVE and if yes can you just tell me what means to you? Because I believe if you don't know love or believe in Love you can not love and be loved in return by anyone. We all know LOVE is the root of all relationships. So tell me what love is to you if you truly believe in it and if you really looking for a soulmate or a second half. I am a very loving woman and I believe so much in love. Get back to me because I am getting more interested in getting to meet you in person. Waiting for your reply
OXOXOXJenny.

I love the way you have putted how much love means to you but to me LOVE means a lot because I believe so much in LOVE, I'm talking about fate here - when feelings are so powerful it's as if some force beyond your control is guiding you to someone who can make you happy beyond your wildest dreams and I believe Love is not about finding the right person, but creating a right relationship. It's not about how much love you have in the beginning but how much love you build till the end. Most women in the present days don't love but lust because they don't really know about love and they are not loving.

I believe you should never question if you are in love or not, because if you were you wouldn't need to ask and i also believe the best way to love is to love like you have never been hurt.And i wish to love that way for now and till life end on my side.so i will love to tell more about my past and presently before we go on .

Hi ,

I wouldnt know what you want in a relationship. But i guess the most important thing is being honest with eachother. Though i feel reluctant talking about myself and my current situation to you as i dont know how you'll feel.But i guess its important you know all about me and the situation i am in so that we'll know if we can go further.I've had loads of bad experiences in my past relationships and i wouldnt want to fall into the same problem anymore.I will like you to give me your words that you really love me and that you want to make a new life with me,cos i have been used before and i wouldnt want to be played on again.I am telling you all this, then you can decide if you still want to meet me or not, so that we will not waste each other's time, when you get this mail,kindly give me a response to let me know if you are still interested or not.

I never grew up to know my mum as she died immediately after my birth. I lost my dad on 9/11 in New York, i'm the only daughter of my folks.I grew up in Paris, My ex-boyfriend,David Gareth used me alot and treated me so badly. He absconded with my dad's money which was kept with me after a completion of a contract in EAST UK,When my boy friend got absconded with the undisclosed sum of US dollars, this brought the first brokeup between me and my dad before is death,because he thought we had the deal together, but not knowing that i'm innocent about this. So my dad has been harsh and tough on me about this.

After all these happened to me and caused by my Ex boyfriend, I joined a dating site (www.couple.com) where I met an African guy online here who promised heaven and earth that he wants to marry me and make me happy in life; "I never knew I was going from Fry-pan to Fire". The African man told me of an investment opportunity in Africa and he convinced me to come along with loads of money when coming down. On getting here, all his intention was to take away the money from me, play me and leave me on my own.

I came from the United States with all the money I've gotten from my Dad's business and contracts renumeration. Because the african guy told me of an idea to invest in West African sculptures here. When I got here, he made all possible means to get the money from me and get away with my money.When I noticed this, I took the money and my travelling boxes and deposited it with a Security/Insurance Company here in Africa in order to safe myself and my assets. Thereafter I left the guy's apartment to an hotel where I am in right now and from which I am communicating to you right now.

I don't want to fall into another terrible situation again after all these that I have faced and I am not ready to be used this time. I need to be very very careful of whom i will go out with or date this time. I will need some words from you, which will prove to me about your interest in me and what exactly you want out of our relationship. I am very eager to have a date now, since i would be coming back to the State as soon as possible you want me to, provided you will treat me in an orderly manner. Well, let me hang on here till I hear from you. I hope you will understand my situation at this time and I hope you will come to my resucue and be of whom i expect you to be. I really need to be loved cos i deserve it.I need a man that would always be there for me, who will be like a father and husband to me, i will reciprocate true LOVE as well.

Jenny

Dear,

Its a great pleasure reading from you.How are you doing?I really want to get out of here to come to the State.I really need your help and trust to get me out of this mess.I want you to have my words as i promise i wouldnt dis-appoint you,i will really appreciate your assistance towards this.Once i get there, we will arrange things in order and we can start a new life together.I want to believe that you will not let me down.

Babes as i have told you what brought me here from the States. I came in here with a total sum of $10.5millionUSD including the money i got from my dad's business and contracts renumeration.While i was coming here, the african guy told me to come with enough money for investment and i even go to the extent of selling my inheritted house just because i want to leave the State .Now, i'm in need of your help, i've gotten enough money to run myself when I get to the State, i want to come over to your end and we can start a new life together, I don't want to live here anymore.As you know i'm a foreigner here and its absolutely dangerous for me out here.Thats why i need your gesture assistance.

How i want you to help me? As i'm scared of being setup by this African guy,i had to act fast for safety.I put this money in a box and got it locked up with a security code known to me only.I deposited the box with some of my travelling luggages with a Security and Insurance Company who render private diplomatic delivery service and i told them that the two boxes are my travelling luggage, which I want to send forth to the State because i'm returning home, then i paid them up their custody and security fee, but i did not tell them that the boxes contain money in order to make everything secure and safe.

I want the boxes sent to you while i catch up with you as soon as it is been delivered to you.Babes we would meet and we can start a new life together.Every arrangement for the delivery is perfect, I have obtained customs papers for private freight and there are seals on the box showing that it is a private delivery and check performed, it is free from customs checks, it will be delivered at your door step by the diplomats of the security company, you do not need to burn out to receive it. And the boxes have security codes lock known to me only, only me can open the boxes, except if I tell anyone the Code, so the Boxes cannot be opened on the Way of delivery to you.

Therefore, I want you to contact me as soon as possible, so that I can give you all my deposit details and information for you to make the Clearance from the Security Company as my fiancée who is to receive my boxes in the State.Once the box gets to you,i will let you know the lock codes to open the boxes and the instructions, then you can open the boxes in order to have some money sent to me for my flight to the State.

Once I get there, we shall invest the money together and start a new family, provided you will not disappoint neither take advantage of me. I hereby promise 30% of the total fund for you to meet any personal needs and i can get something done with the balance.

I am counting on you with trust and i'll appreciate your trust towards this.I hope to hear from you and to meet you in person.Please write me as soon as possible, so that I can give you the deposit details and the contact of the security company to arrange the shipment asap.

With all care,

Jenny

Hey,

So all you will do for me to get the boxes, is to write to the security/ company as the receipt of my travelling luggages , just tell them you are my fiancée and you want my travelling luggage sent to you in USA. Because i told them that it is my travelling luggages, and i have locked the boxes with a security 4 codes, which prevent it from been opened by an authorized person.

So i deposited the boxes with the security company as a Private shipment (free from checks) and it will be deliver to your door-step, you do not need to burn out to receive. Therefore, below are my deposit details and the contact of the security company. You can write to them to inform them that you want the boxes delivered to you as soon as possible and ask them how much the clearance fee will cost. I did pay them already the Deposit Fee Security Fee Shipment Fee, only the clearance fee is to be paid. Please, bear in mind not to tell the company that the boxes contains money, only say travelling luggage of, (Miss Jessica Baxter)
