SIJILL ARTICLE: Maulana Ali's Wasiyyat –Advice and Wise Counsel – Before His Shahaadat

During his last Shehullah Amirul Mumineen SA lived in Kufa, Iraq. On the morning of the 19th of Shehullah, Ibn Muljim -- one of the Kharijites escaped from the battle with the Khawaarij (those who abandoned and denounced Amirul Mumineen SA after the battle of Siffeen) -- struck a deadly blow to Maulana Ali SA with his sword while he was praying Tahiyyatul Masjid in Jame' Kufa.

Amirul Mumineen was then brought to his home. During the next two days, before his Ruh Mubarak (blessed soul) departed this world for the highest heavens on the 21st of Shehrollah, Amirul Mumineen SA spent his last hours giving advice and wise counsel to his family and the close companions gathered around him.

Amirul Mumineen SA said:

Praise God, who fixed the span of lives, destined the sustenance his servants receive, ordained a destiny for all things, and omitted nothing from the book. He said: "Wherever you may be, death will find you, even if you take shelter in fortified towers." He also said: "Say: Even if you had been sheltering in your homes, those who were destined to be slain would have gone forth to the places where they were to lie down in death." And he said to his prophet: "Command good, forbid evil, and bear patiently the troubles that assail you. Truly, this is part of resoluteness in tackling affairs."

The beloved of God, God's chosen from among his creatures, the epitome of truthfulness whose veracity we all accept, informed [me] about this day. He entrusted me with a testament regarding it, saying:

"Ali, I wonder how it will be with you when you remain alone among the dregs of humanity. You will call out and none will answer. You will defend the faith and none will come to your aid. Your companions will incline toward another, your advisors will become your adversaries, those with you causing you more harm than your enemy. If you urge them to fight, they will block your attempts and avert their faces. If you exhort them to battle, they will turn their backs and hasten away. Secretly they will wish you gone, all because you undertake God's command and deter them from worldliness. Among them will be one whose ambition you have forestalled, who suppresses his rage and bides his time. And another whose family you have slain in battle, who awaits his vengeance and hopes that fate's vicissitudes and calamities' onslaughts will dispatch you on his behalf. Each will hold malice in his breast, inflamed by wrath. You will remain with them in this state, until, in the end, they will crush you with evil and slay you through deceit. They will call you the names they used on me: soothsayer, magician, fraud, liar. Bear all this patiently, for you have a model to follow in the person of God's messenger. This is what God commanded when he said: "In the person of God's messenger you have a worthy model to follow."

God has commanded me to bring you close, 'Ali, and not keep you distant, to teach you and not disregard you, to keep you near and not be harsh with you."

This was the prophet's counsel to me and the testament he entrusted to me.

Now I offer my counsel to you, O you who have undertaken God's command, fought to defend the faith, and worked assiduously to secure the rights of the widowed and the needy. I counsel you to maintain your piety after I am gone. I warn you against the world and her adornments and splendors, for they are the cargo of deception. Shun the path of those who relied on the world, whose hearts were blinded by heedlessness that they lost all mindfulness of the hereafter; God sent them something they had not reckoned with, and seized them suddenly in their blithe oblivion.

There have been people before you who remained true to their prophets and followed in their footsteps. If you embrace their guidance and pursue their practice you will not go astray. Indeed, God's prophet has given you God's book and his own family to lead you after him. They have knowledge concerning what you should or should not do. They are the clear path, the shining light, the supports of the earth, and its just rulers. It is their light from which illumination is sought, and it is their guidance that is to be followed. They come from a tree whose origin is noble, whose roots are firm, whose branches are lofty, and whose fruit is sweet—grown in the solid earth of the holy sanctuary, irrigated by the water of nobility, cleansed of pollution and filth, and selected from the purest of families. Do not turn aside from them or you will be flung asunder. Do not move away from them or you will be torn to pieces. Cleave to them and you will gain guidance and direction. Adhere to the wishes of God's messenger regarding them. For he informed you that, "the two will not separate until they come to me at the celestial pool"—I mean God's book and the prophet's progeny.

I entrust you to God, who never abuses trust.

May God give you what you hope for, and protect you from what you fear.

Convey my greetings of peace to those who bear love for me, to their children, and to their children's children.

May God safeguard you, and may He safeguard your prophet in you.

Go in peace.

Amirul Mumineen's words resonate even today, and his guidance to embrace Ahlul-Bayt is as important today as it was then.

Rasulullah's SA description of Maulana Ali's time after him bears many resemblances to the situation in Dawat today. Today, Syedna Outbuddin TUS is the Dai of Ahle-Bayt, the Dai of the successor of Amirul Mumineen, and he continues to defend the faith and call to the Straight Path. In this month of Ramadaan, as we fast and pray, let us reflect on the weighty words of Amirul Mumineen SA and let us reflect whether our actions do indeed follow the wasiyaat of Moulana Ali. We mumineen – followers of Syedna Outbuddin – are the Ummat of Mohammed SA, the Shi'a of Ali, for whom Rasulullah SA declared, "Shi'atu Aliyyin humul faa'izun"(Ali's Shi'a are indeed victorious). We are Ali's Shi'a, we are believers in the Imam in Mohammed and Ali's progeny, we are believers in their Dai, amongst us during the Imam's seclusion. May Allah Ta'ala grant us a fragment of the fortitude and Sabar of Imam Ali, a fragment of the firmness in belief and Yaqeen of Imam Ali, and may Allah Ta'ala keep us amongst the Shi'a of Imam Ali SA.

The above translation was written by Shz Dr Bazat Tahera Baisaheba and published in Treasury of Virtues.

FATEMI MADRASA: Munajaat - Wakamlillah min Lutfin Khafiyyi

"Wa kam lillahe min lutfin khafiyyi" is a munajaat sharifa by Ameerul Mumeneen Maulana Ali ibne abi Talib AS "Munajaat" literally means, "to converse with The Almighty" and it is a great fortune for a Mumin to be able to pray to Allah Ta'ala as shown by Amiral Mumineen. Mumineen should recite this munajaat especially during the month of Ramadaan, which is the month of Allah, the month of ibaadat and dua.

In this munajat, Maulana Ali guides us to trust in Allah Subhanahu and not despair or lose hope, even when faced with immense difficulties and overwhelming circumstances. Maulana Ali guides us to seek intercession (vasila) of the Nabi and pray to Allah when faced with difficulties, so that our prayers will be answered. In the last bayt of the munajaat, Maulana Ali gives us hope and says, "Do not be alarmed when a tragedy strikes you, for Allah's workings include many a subtle grace. Allah's endless graces and kindnesses are hidden even from the most intelligent minds."

Fatemi Madrasa is pleased to present this beautiful munajaat with a Dawat ni Zabaan khulaso audio-video, full audio, Dawat ni zaban translation, English translation, and a key Arabic word vocabulary list.

NAZARAAT: Syedna Burhanuddin RA and Syedna Qutbuddin TUS Lailatul Qadr, Badri Mahal 1431H

1431H Shehruallah, Maghrib Isha namaz in Saifee Masjid, Mumbai
For 50 years, Syedna Mohammed Burhanuddin RA deputed his Mazoon and Mansoos Syedna Khuzaima Qutbuddin TUS to lead namaz during Shehruallah al-Mu'azzam in Ghurratul-Masajid Saifee Masjid, Mumbai, whenever Syedna Burhanuddin himself would not be leading there. This amal was in parallel to the amal of Syedna Taher Saifuddin RA who used to depute his Mazoon and Mansoos Syedna Burhanuddin to lead namaz during Shehruallah in Ghurratul-Masajid Saifee Masjid, Mumbai, whenever Taher Saifuddin Mola himself would not be leading there.

Syedna Burhanuddin said in his waaz on 7 Moharram, 1422H (31 March, 2001), in Houston, USA: "the Dai and Mazoon are the names of Moulatuna Fatema; the Mazoon establishes Fatemi Dawat, the Dawat of Imam-uz-Zaman, in partnership with the Dai". Truly, we saw the realization of this mubarak and deeply meaningful statement most clearly during the holy month of Shehruallah, when Burhanuddin Aqa's Mazoon used to arrive with shaan-o-shawkat to Saifee Masjid to lead namaz and ibadat.

May Allah Ta'ala grant longest life till qiyamat to Burhanuddin Aqa's waaris Syedna Qutbuddin, and may we see him, the Dai of Imam-uz-Zaman, lead namaz in Saifee Masjid, the Masjid which his beloved father built, again very soon. This is the masjid which Syedna Qutbuddin's father built and in which Syedna Burhanuddin took Qutbuddin Mola's name hundreds of times in the sacred Misaq and in his waazes. Could someone have imagined that in this holy place, there will come a people who will pronounce curses upon him, and thereby desecrate the sanctity of this Masjid and the hurmat of Taher Saifuddin Mola and Burhanuddin Aqa? Indeed, in these times, we remember that in Dawat this has happened many times – Banu Umayya for a 1000 months ascended the very minbars (pulpits) on which Rasulullah SAW had stood hundreds of times, and while pretending to be the leaders of the Muslims, they declared that Amirul Mumineen was in fact the enemy of Rasulullah, and pronounced curses upon him and his followers. May Allah protect Syedna Qutbuddin and his followers from the evil actions and intentions of such people.

1431H Laylatul Qadr – Syedna

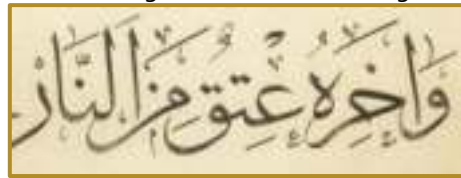

Mohammed Burhanuddin RA and Syedna Khuzaima Qutbuddin TUS – Rozat Taher and Badri Mahal

Syedna Burhanuddin RA's proclamation "the Dai and Mazoon are the names of Moulatuna Fatema; the Mazoon establishes Fatemi Dawat, the Dawat of Imam-uz-Zaman, in partnership with the Dai" stands true and manifest for all whose minds are not marred with the poison of lies and false propaganda. One highlight was during the Night of Moulatuna Fatema, Lailatul Qadr, during the last Shehrullah before our beloved Mola Syedna Burhanuddin suffered the grievous stroke. In Lailatul Qadr, 1431H, Burhanuddin Mola graced Badri Mahal masjid for Isha namaz. After namaz, Syedna Burhanuddin left the masjid while deputing his Mazoon and Mansoos Syedna Qutbuddin TUS to lead namaz of Laylatul Qadr in his stead. Syedna Qutbuddin lead the namaz of Washsheq, Istiftah and Nisful-Layl, and prayed 'hazehis-salaat', after which Syedna Burhanuddin again graced the masjid for Vasila mubarak. Syedna Burhanuddin again sent his Mazoon and Mansoos for leading fajr namaz, thereby completing the ne'mats of Lailatul Qadr which are ever flowing until fajr upon all mumineen.

FATEMI DAWAT ANNUAL REPORT:1435h - 1436H PDF and ebook

The following is the Executive Summary of the Fatemi Dawat Annual Report published this week on Fatemidawat.com:

This is the 1436H Annual Report of Dawat-e-Hadiyah, the Fatemi Dawat administration of the 53rd Dai al-Mutlaq Syedna Khuzaima Qutbuddin TUS, head of the worldwide Dawoodi Bohra community. Last year in Shehre Ramadan 1435H, detailed guidelines for calculating Zakaat and other wajeabaat dues were published. This Shehre Ramadan, 1436H, Syedna Qutbuddin has instructed the publication of a report of Dawat activities.

The aim of the report is two-fold:

1. To demonstrate and promote an efficient, professional, compassionate, sustainable organization that will grow dynamically and multifold in the years to come, inshaallah
2. To inform mumineen who are submitting Zakaat to the Dai al-Mutlaq about Dawat activities and upliftment programs in which Zakaat resources are allocated. Learning these details, each mumineen will insha'allah be encouraged to get personally involved in Dawat activities by doing khidmat and contributing their skills and offering their counsel.

All departments of Dawat have administered many positive projects and worked efficiently to achieve their mission of serving the 53rd Dai al Mutlaq and helping mumineen. This report explains where Dawat resources are being allocated, describes this year's accomplishments, and explains future projects, under the following rubrics:
